Mission Statement

The mission of the NFHS Officials Association is to enhance the professional development of all high school sports officials in order to improve inter-scholastic athletics in America.

The NFHS Officials Association Individual Membership period is one calendar year from the date the properly completed application and appropriate fees are received by the NFHS.

NOTE: Some states provide automatic membership in the NFHS Officials Association as part of the state's licensing process. Check with your state high school association to determine if this benefit already exists.

Insurance Coverage

Who is covered?

- All officials must be currently registered with a member state association, or with an affiliate of the NFHS (if that association registers officials), in order to be eligible for the NFHS Officials Association insurance benefit.
- State and local officials' associations that have 100% membership in the NFHS Officials Association are included as additional insureds under the general liability policy.
- Assignors, instructors and rule interpreters who are currently registered with the NFHS Officials Association are covered under liability insurance for claims involving Bodily Injury or Property Damage. No liability coverage is provided for claims that do not involve Bodily Injury or Property Damage. Note: Coverage for alleged wrongful acts not involving Bodily Injury or Property Damage is provided by a Directors & Officers liability insurance policy and can be purchased separately.

What Activities are Covered?

- The insurance coverage applies only while the member official is performing his/her officiating duties (as defined below) during regularly scheduled sports or activities competitions.
- In order for a member to be covered for his/her officiating, the sport/activity must be recognized in that state (or U.S. territory or possession) by the member state high school association, or by high schools that follow the guidelines of the member state associations.
- If the sport is recognized for either men or women in that state, territory or possession, the official will be covered for officiating that sport for both men and women.
- Officiating duties also include chain crews and attending officiating camps, clinics and meetings.
- Assignors, instructors and rule interpreters while acting in their official capacity. Note: No liability coverage is provided for claims that do not involve Bodily Injury or Property Damage. See "Who is Covered" above.
- Coverage for officials is not limited to high school activities. It also extends to officiating college, junior college, independent youth, adult and recreational leagues. Coverage is limited only to officiating sports that are recognized by that state's high school association.
- No coverage is provided for the officiating or management of any professional sport or activity.
- Direct travel to and from sponsored activity.
- Assignors, instructors and rule interpreters while acting in their official capacity.

What is the Coverage Territory?

The policy protects the member while in the United States, its territories and possessions; and while temporarily performing covered activities outside the United States. If outside the U.S., the official is covered as long as the sport is recognized by one of the state high school associations or an NFHS affiliate association.
